

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT IN QRIS

Key Features of Family Engagement

Sample Indicators

Communication

- Respectful two-way exchange of information
- Multiple ways to communicate are offered
- Time is made to engage families meaningfully in conversations

Family Needs and Feedback

- Family input guides program planning and policies
 - Program is adapted to meet the needs of children and families
 - Hiring practices of staff and volunteers reflect family's diverse backgrounds
-

Collaborative Activities with Families

- Fathers are encouraged to participate in activities
 - Opportunities exist for staff and families to learn from one another
 - Volunteer opportunities match families' strengths, interests, and skills
-
- An illustration of a man and a woman. The man is in the foreground, wearing a white shirt, with a beard and short dark hair. The woman is partially visible behind him, wearing a purple top. They are both looking towards the left.

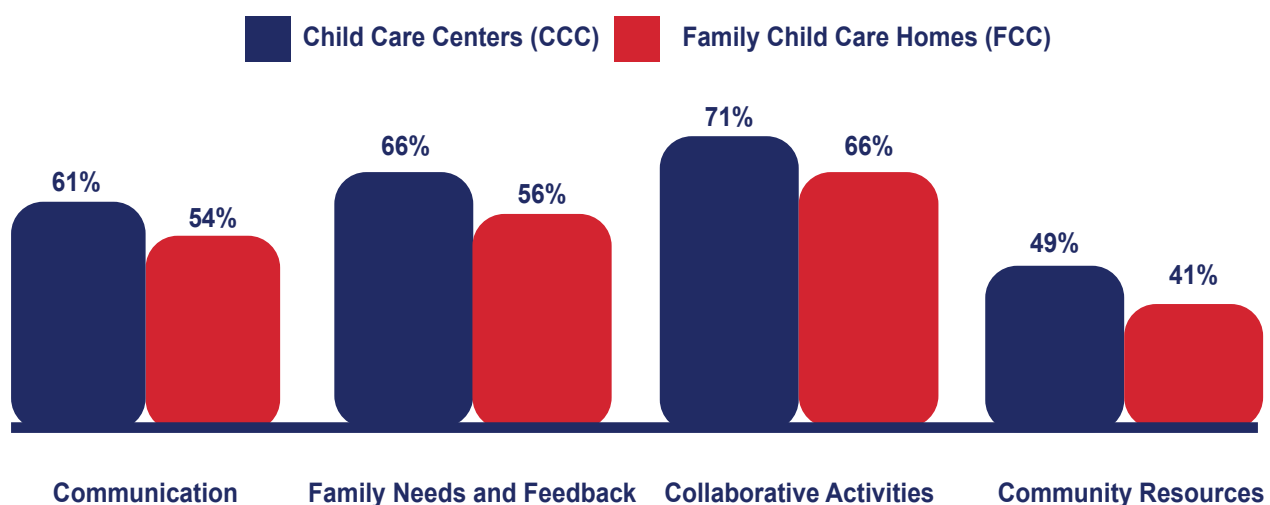

Community Resources and Family Support

- Families are connected to community resources
 - Support and planning around transitions is provided
 - Educational & developmental resources are offered for families to use at home
-

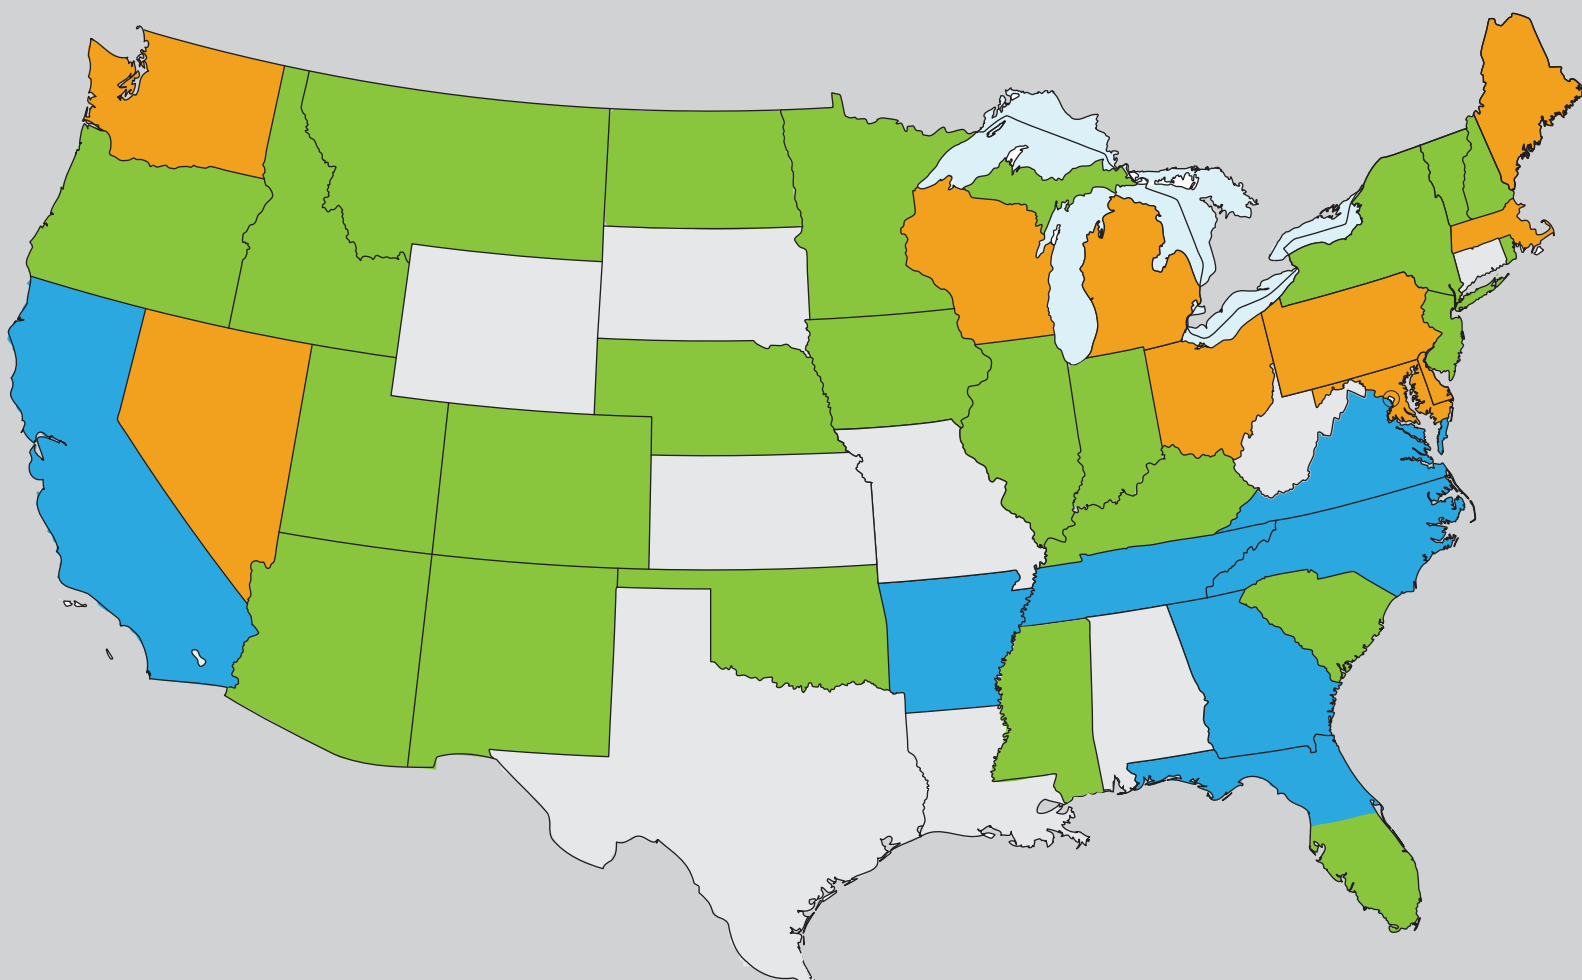

QRIS Assessing Family Engagement by Feature

*2016 data retrieved May 2, 2017 from QRISCompendium.org as reported by representatives within each state.

How Well is Family Engagement Assessed in your State's QRIS?

Presence of Family Engagement Features in QRIS

■ All four
 ■ Some
 ■ None
 ■ No QRIS data reported